Cochimbo, Chili, Nov. 11—One hundred persons were killed here when a tidal wave coming after the earthquake swept in with a great roar. The highlights were panic stricken and ran to the hills. The advance of the sea was accompanyed by electrical discharges.

(By Associated Press)
San Diego, Chili, Nov. 11—An earthquake of great magnitude and far spread effect rocked Chili from end to end today.
It was accompanied by a tidal wave and the combined force of the earth tremor and the sweep of the water did vast damage, the extent of which is impossible to estimate because telegraphic lines were carried down at various places, cutting off communication.

The provinces of Antofagasta, Atacama and Coquimbo suffered most.
Central points of the quake lying in the latter two provinces and so far as records show, Copiapo, in Atacama, has the largest casualty list with about 100 killed and many seriously injured.

It was for a time feared that the city of Antofagasta had suffered a great disaster, but most of the damage done at that place was due to a tidal wave which drove the people out of their homes over a considerable area. No report of loss of life yet come from Antofagasta.

CALL TO GO OVER
THIS AFTERNOON

All Citizens Asked to Be At Home For M
One Hour
1 TO 2 P. M. THE HOUR
City Has Been Divided Into Districts For Easier Handling

All citizens of Palatka are urged to remain at their homes today between the hours of 1 and 2 p. m., when representatives of the local chapter of the Red Cross will call to register names and get a dollar in the annual Red Cross Roll Call. By remaining at home citizens will greatly facilitate the work of those who are doing this patriotic work.

The city has been divided into ten districts. Each district is in charge of a captain, who has enlisted a full personnel to canvass each block, and it is possible that the entire work will be over within an hour after it starts.
By this means it is hoped to enlist the largest number of Red Cross members that Palatka has ever shown.

Announcements will be made from all of the churches today and speakers will explain just what the Roll Call is for. The principal aim now of the local chapter is the securing of a regular nurse to look after the growing needs of the sick, especially those unable to afford hospital facilities and proper nursing. It is planned to ask assistance of the city and county in this laudable undertaking.

The Red Cross is making a special effort to alleviate the suffering and want of the disabled veterans of the world war, and half of the money collected in memberships today will be sent to the main headquarters of the organization for that purpose. The other half will be retained by the local chapter for work here.

20 ALIENS LANDED ON FLORIDA COAST
BY HAVANA VESSEL

Nine Captured and Jailed
By Sheriff Tipping
Of Lee County

(By Associated Press)
Fort Myers, Nov. 11—A man hunt was on tonight in the wilds of Lee county southeast of this city as a result of the escape of eleven of a party of 20 Europeans landed near Naples Friday night by an auxiliary schooner out of Havana in violation of the Federal immigration laws. Of the score who attempted to evade the laws governing the entry of aliens, nine were in jail here having been rounded up by Sheriff Tipping and his deputies. An immigration officer was due here tonight from Tampa to take charge of the prisoners.

One of the prisoners, Sheriff Tipping said, stated that the aliens boarded the schooner at Havana and sailed from that port Thursday night.
They arrived at Naples Friday night and landed under cover of darkness.
Each alien, the sheriff said, paid the master of the schooner $100 for bringing him to Florida. The authorities have not divulged the identity of the vessel, if they have learned it.

DISGUSTED VET
HOGS PARADE OF
UNWASHED GANG

Starts Counter Proce-sion With Pertinent Banners
POLICE PREVENT RIOT
Sarcastic Banners Too Much for Seekers of Amnesty

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 11—Petitioners for general amnesty for imprisoned violators of war laws today utilized the spirit of armistice day in another endeavor to influence President Harding to pardon the sixty-four men still serving sentence under the espionage act.

With a band of five pieces playing “The Marseillaise,” and two color bearers carrying American flags at the head, the amnesty seekers, more than 200 strong, and with banners, descended upon the White House soon after the President had returned from Arlington where, in the name of the American people, he had placed a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier. They had obtained a permit to parade on Pennsylvania avenue before the White House grounds, but after doing this they turned into West Executive avenue toward the troubles began.

The procession proceeded quietly until it reached the entrance to the grounds near the executive offices when a husky park police lieutenant choked off the band in the middle of “Onward Christian Soldiers,” and informed the leaders that they then were on government reservation ground and the permit was invalid.
The band thereupon disappeared, but those participating in the procession remained with their banners about the ground for an hour before adjourning to Lafayette Square where an open air meeting was held.

Counter Parade Starts

The meeting in the square had barely gotten under way when a young man, accompanied by a half dozen negro boys appeared with a new kind of banner. These banners, as soon as displayed, started a counter demonstration as the amnesty seekers showed unmistakably that they resented the inscription, some of which ran as follows:

“Treason aint no crime—Benedict Arnold, Patriotic Association, Inc.” “We extend our sympathy—Pickpockets Association.” “Greetings and good cheer—Sneak Thieves, Inc.”
“We want ours, too—Chicken Thieves Society.”

Police had to intervene between the two sets of demonstrators and when quiet was restored the head of the anti-amnesty group, Herbert B. Mayer, of New York, who said he recently was honorably discharged from the 16th Infantry, Fifth division, after a long period of service, including two years overseas, explained his purpose.

“Upon being informed this morning that the long haired men and short haired women behind this movement intended to parade on armistice day,” he said, “I communicated my views upon the subject to various patriotic associations. The response was such that I was led to believe I was entirely wrong.”

“Overwhelmed by consciousness of my error I determined to make amends by showing sympathy with the cause of opening the jail bars for the anti-war gentlemen a la Debs.”

WOMAN'S PARTY
INSISTANT UPON
EQUALITY BASIS

Make Far-Reaching Plea
For Strong Campaign
For Sex.
PARTICIPATE WITH MEN
Priesthood or Ministry
Shall Not Be Barred
From Them

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 11—Officers of the national Women's Party representing women of 33 states today unanimously adopted a far reaching declaration of rights as the basis for a country-wide campaign demanding equal rights for women in the home, church, industry and government.

Debate at the opening session of the two day equal rights conference centered principally around two points in the declaration which demanded that:

“Restrictions upon the hours, conditions and remuneration of labor shall apply alike to both sexes,” and “that women shall no longer be barred from the priesthood or ministry or any position of authority in the church, but equally with men shall participate in ecclesiastical offices and dignities.” Speakers declared that as women were the mainstay of the church and principal educators of their children in religion they should enjoy equally privileges of leadership in the pulpit.

To carry out the plan of equality the conference then adopted a plan of campaign reaching into every state where legislatures are to meet this year to stir sentiment among both men and women in favor of the equal rights declaration. Equal rights sentiment would be stimulated not only in state legislatures but in congress, as well through the working of congressional committees in each state.

Tomorrow forenoon there will be a conference of women lawyers from all parts of the country and in the afternoon a conference will reconvene for the disposal of several important party questions.

Finger Printing
May Aid In the Mills-Hall Case

(By Associated Press)
New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 11—Mrs. Francis Stephens Hall, widow of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, who was murdered on the Phillips farm with Mrs. Eleanor Mills, said tonight through her attorney, that she is willing to be finger printed if it will in any way assist in running down the slayer of her husband.

Certain authorities conducting the investigation had said that several persons who had been questioned would be asked for finger prints.

Entirely at my own expense and representing no one at all except myself, I hired the boys and made the signs myself in a butcher shop.”

Mr. Mayer said further, that he “of course had no possible right to represent,” the organizations named on the banners his cohorts carried, but added that “if this slight action of mine has in any way served to demonstrate the buffoonery and horror of demonstrations such as this on armistice day—the day on which we honor our dead comrades who did not stay in jail—the little feature will have achieved its purpose.”

UNKNOWN GRAVE
IS DECORATED
IN REMEMBRANCE

President Harding Pays
Homage to Unknown
Soldier
PROFUSION OF FLOWERS
Simplicity of Ceremony
Rendered Tribute
The Sweeter

Washington, Nov. 11—President Harding laid a wreath of remembrance today on the tomb of the unknown soldier at Arlington National cemetery. It was set there as a wordless greeting from the heart of America to a valorous, honored son and commemorated the first anniversary of his homecoming from France.

The utter simplicity and sincerity of the tribute today was in a way as gripping to the few who saw it made as was the day long tide of emotional fever that marked that homecoming.
It set a custom for the national observance of armistice day in future that will make the unknown from France the keeper of America's annual expression of pride and glory in her sons who fought in France bethey living or dead.

There were many other tributes brought to the tomb during the day.
Sometimes little groups of men and women from distant cities made the journey to lay bright flowers on the moulded stone work that holds the body of a nameless American for whom no honor has been too high; sometimes blossoms were laid there by men moved to individual tribute to the dead. It was thus that General Pershing's offering was placed.

The man who commanded this humble sleeper, and the surging ranks of his comrades in France had hoped to go himself and alone to carry his tribute to the fallen to the tomb. But he was called elsewhere to talk with patriotic men on living issues in the nation's life and reluctantly assigned his aide to go after all others had come and gone with their flowers and place his offering on the tomb.

A mere handful of spectators and a little detachment of armed men made up of soldierly sailors and marines to represent the three fighting services of the nation, were at hand when the President appeared with Secretary Weeks and Secretary Denby to pay the nation's honors to the dead. Cavalry had escorted the Presidential party from the White House, but had turned aside before the tomb was reached. There was no word spoken on the terraced sweep where the tomb lies except the commands that moved the rifles of the guard of honor to salute.

The President seemed to feel a deep significance in the moment as though he sensed the solemn approval of the 100,000,000 of his countrymen in what he did in their name. He placed the great wreath against the stonework of the tomb, then stepped back to pause a moment, looking down on the plain block of masonry that covers a plain soldier chosen to typify the greatest among the nation's heroes. The hush on the terrace was almost breathless and every eye was fixed on the still figure or the President standing with bared head, bent as though in reverry, slowly, almost as though it were unconsciously, the President raised his hand in military salute to the dead, his shoulders straightening. Then he turned away and a moment later was speeding back to busy affairs in Washington behind the trotting cavalry.

PLAN PERFECTED
FOR ABOLISHING
DREADED WEEVIL

Boll Weevil Controlled
By Newly Discovered
Principle
EXPENSE IS VERY LIGHT Fields Treated By New Discovery Return
Fine Fields

(By Associated Press)
Gainesville, Fla., Nov. 11—Development of a satisfactory method of controlling the boll weevil on short staple cotton or upland cotton, was announced here tonight by Dr. Wilson Newell, plant commissioner for the state plant board and director of the University of Florida experiment station.

Dr. Newell's announcement was made as the result of the successful culmination of research work by Geo.
D. Smith, associate entomologist, conducted under the auspices of the state plant board.

The method involves a principle in boll weevil control heretofore not recognized by other investigators, Dr.
Newell stated, and he added that the total cost of treatment labor included does not exceed $1.50 or $2 an acre in the fields treated the cotton crop in nearly every instance has been as large as that obtained prior to the advent of the weevil.

While some poison is used the amount is comparatively small, Dr.
Newell said. By means of the improved method a cotton field is cleared of practically all old weevils early in June and remains in that condition for several weeks. During this period a good crop of bolls is set without weevil interference.

Both the state plant board and the experiment station will issue immediately bulletins on the improved method of control.

“The boll weevil's weak point has now been found,” declared Dr. Newell, and by this method of control the farmer will be able to hand him a solar plexus blow. The treated fields have produced just about as much cotton as if there had been no boll weevils. The return of profitable short staple cotton culture in Florida is now assured.”

Florida Freshmen
Easily Defeat
Baby Gamecocks

(By Associated Press)
Gainesville, Florida, Nov. 11—Florida Freshmen won their fourth straight victory today by defeating the baby Gamecocks of the University of S. C. by a score of 20 to 3. It was the first defeat the Carolinians had taken during the season but Jaskewitz kicked from placement from the 32 yard line in the first quarter for the first score made against the Florida rats this fall.

Mississippi Bows
To Florida By
Score of 58-0

(By Associated Press)
Tampa, Nov. 11—The Florida University football team wrecked the Mississippi College eleven's defense here today after the latter had played the Gators off their feet for a full quarter and smashed away to a 58 to 0 victory. Newton's 72 yard run in the second quarter for a touchdown was the feature of the game.

ARMISTICE
DAY VISIT
WAS MADE
MEMORABLE

Former President Wilson
Delivers Patriotic
Address

STREET ARE PACKED
Speech of Five Minutes
Greeted With Great
Applause

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 11—Woodrow Wilson told a host of friends and admirers who made an Armistice day visit to his home here today that world peace could be brought about only by “active cooperation for justice,” and “not by amiable phrases.” America always has stood for justice he declared, adding that the “pny persons,” now standing in the way would find presently that “their weakness is no match for the strength of a moving providence.”

The former president spoke standing on the portico of his residence and without manuscript or notes. His remarks consumed about five minutes. They were the first he had made on public questions since he was stricken on his league of nations tour of the world three years ago.
This was his third public appearance since he left the White House on March 4, 1921.

Is Given An Ovation

The appearance of Mr. Wilson, who was assisted to the portico by a negro servant, was the signal for prolonged cheers from the crowd that packed the street and overflowed on nearby lawns and a vacant field. The war-time president responded with a smile and a raising of his conventional silk hat. Mrs. Wilson did not accompany him, but as she appeared to assist him back in doors at the conclusion of his address, she, too, received an ovation.

Mr. Wilson's address was in response to one delivered to him by Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, who declared that the principles enunciated by Mr. Wilson would prevail and last Tuesday it had been demonstrated that “the people of America are escaping from materialism and selfishness and are preparing again to recognize their solemn and inexorable duty towards their fellow nations in Europe.”

Crowd Cheer Reference

This reference to the election brought a smile and a low cry of “hear! hear!” from the hearers of the former chief executive. In his remarks Mr. Wilson spoke clearly and distinctly and with much of his old time rapidity. Necessarily, however, there was lacking the once characteristic vigor of delivery and his voice carried only slightly beyond the imner edges of the crowd.

The singing of southern by a chorus opened the program. Mr. Wilson appeared. He sent with the band from Virginia, his ne-Jersey, his home trict of Columbia
ident shook hand little flower girls
